

The Federation of Longhorsley and Whalton C of E Schools

Love your Neighbour as yourself so we can all aspire, believe and achieve to be the very best that we can be...

Hope - Honesty - Forgiveness - Friendship - Trust - Love

R.E - Overview 2025-2026

<table><tr><td>4-5s Reception</td><td>Children will encounter Christian and other worldviews represented in the local area.</td></tr><tr><td>5-7s Key Stage 1</td><td>Christians for at least 50% of study time and Muslims and Jews. Pupils may also learn from other religions and non-religious worldviews in thematic units.</td></tr><tr><td>7-11s Key Stage 2</td><td>Christians for at least 50% of study time and Hindus, Jews, Muslims and Sikhs. Pupils may also learn from other religions and non-religious worldviews in thematic units.</td></tr></table>		4-5s Reception	Children will encounter Christian and other worldviews represented in the local area.	5-7s Key Stage 1	Christians for at least 50% of study time and Muslims and Jews. Pupils may also learn from other religions and non-religious worldviews in thematic units.	7-11s Key Stage 2	Christians for at least 50% of study time and Hindus, Jews, Muslims and Sikhs. Pupils may also learn from other religions and non-religious worldviews in thematic units.	In this syllabus, RE teaching and learning should enable pupils to <table><tr><td>A. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious concepts and beliefs.</td><td>B. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs.</td><td>C. Make connections between religious and non-religious concepts, beliefs, practices and ideas studied.</td></tr></table> End of Key Stage 1 outcomes RE should enable pupils to <table><tr><td><ul style="list-style-type: none">Identify the core concepts and beliefs studied and give a simple description of what they meanGive examples of how stories show what people believe (e.g. the meaning behind a festival)Give clear, simple accounts of what stories and other texts mean to believers</td><td><ul style="list-style-type: none">Give examples of how people use stories, texts and teachings to guide their beliefs and actions, individually and as communitiesGive examples of ways in which believers put their beliefs into action</td><td><ul style="list-style-type: none">Think, talk and ask questions about whether the ideas they have been studying have something to say to themGive a good reason for the views they have and the connections they makeTalk about what they have learned</td></tr></table>		A. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious concepts and beliefs.	B. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs.	C. Make connections between religious and non-religious concepts, beliefs, practices and ideas studied.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Identify the core concepts and beliefs studied and give a simple description of what they meanGive examples of how stories show what people believe (e.g. the meaning behind a festival)Give clear, simple accounts of what stories and other texts mean to believers	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Give examples of how people use stories, texts and teachings to guide their beliefs and actions, individually and as communitiesGive examples of ways in which believers put their beliefs into action	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Think, talk and ask questions about whether the ideas they have been studying have something to say to themGive a good reason for the views they have and the connections they makeTalk about what they have learned	In this syllabus, RE teaching and learning should enable pupils to <table><tr><td>A. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious concepts and beliefs.</td><td>B. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs.</td><td>C. Make connections between religious and non-religious concepts, beliefs, practices and ideas studied.</td></tr></table> End of Lower Key Stage 2 outcomes RE should enable pupils to <table><tr><td><ul style="list-style-type: none">Identify and describe the core beliefs and concepts studiedMake clear links between texts/sources of authority and the key concepts studiedOffer informed suggestions about what texts/sources of authority might mean and give examples of what these sources mean to believers</td><td><ul style="list-style-type: none">Make simple links between stories, teachings and concepts studied and how people live, individually and in communitiesDescribe how people show their beliefs in how they worship and in the way they liveIdentify some differences in how people put their beliefs into practice</td><td><ul style="list-style-type: none">Raise important questions and suggest answers about how far the beliefs and practices studied might make a difference to how pupils think and liveMake links between some of the beliefs and practices studied and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearlyGive good reasons for the views they have and the connections they makeTalk about what they have learned and if they have changed their thinking</td></tr></table>		A. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious concepts and beliefs.	B. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs.	C. Make connections between religious and non-religious concepts, beliefs, practices and ideas studied.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Identify and describe the core beliefs and concepts studiedMake clear links between texts/sources of authority and the key concepts studiedOffer informed suggestions about what texts/sources of authority might mean and give examples of what these sources mean to believers	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Make simple links between stories, teachings and concepts studied and how people live, individually and in communitiesDescribe how people show their beliefs in how they worship and in the way they liveIdentify some differences in how people put their beliefs into practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Raise important questions and suggest answers about how far the beliefs and practices studied might make a difference to how pupils think and liveMake links between some of the beliefs and practices studied and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearlyGive good reasons for the views they have and the connections they makeTalk about what they have learned and if they have changed their thinking
4-5s Reception	Children will encounter Christian and other worldviews represented in the local area.
5-7s Key Stage 1	Christians for at least 50% of study time and Muslims and Jews. Pupils may also learn from other religions and non-religious worldviews in thematic units.
7-11s Key Stage 2	Christians for at least 50% of study time and Hindus, Jews, Muslims and Sikhs. Pupils may also learn from other religions and non-religious worldviews in thematic units.
A. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious concepts and beliefs.	B. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs.	C. Make connections between religious and non-religious concepts, beliefs, practices and ideas studied.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Identify the core concepts and beliefs studied and give a simple description of what they meanGive examples of how stories show what people believe (e.g. the meaning behind a festival)Give clear, simple accounts of what stories and other texts mean to believers	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Give examples of how people use stories, texts and teachings to guide their beliefs and actions, individually and as communitiesGive examples of ways in which believers put their beliefs into action	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Think, talk and ask questions about whether the ideas they have been studying have something to say to themGive a good reason for the views they have and the connections they makeTalk about what they have learned
A. Make sense of a range of religious and non-religious concepts and beliefs.	B. Understand the impact and significance of religious and non-religious beliefs.	C. Make connections between religious and non-religious concepts, beliefs, practices and ideas studied.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Identify and describe the core beliefs and concepts studiedMake clear links between texts/sources of authority and the key concepts studiedOffer informed suggestions about what texts/sources of authority might mean and give examples of what these sources mean to believers	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Make simple links between stories, teachings and concepts studied and how people live, individually and in communitiesDescribe how people show their beliefs in how they worship and in the way they liveIdentify some differences in how people put their beliefs into practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Raise important questions and suggest answers about how far the beliefs and practices studied might make a difference to how pupils think and liveMake links between some of the beliefs and practices studied and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearlyGive good reasons for the views they have and the connections they makeTalk about what they have learned and if they have changed their thinking
	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Nursery and Reception	F1 God and Creation Why is the word 'God' so important to Christians? Harvest	F2 Incarnation - Why do Christians perform nativity plays at Christmas? Remembrance Christmas	F4 - Being special - where do we belong? Thematic Unit	F3 Salvation Why do some Christians put a cross in an Easter garden? Easter	F5 Which places are special and why? Thematic Unit	F6 Which stories are special and why? Thematic Unit
Year 1	1.6 Who is a Muslim and how do they live?	1.3 Why does Christmas matter to Christians? UC 1.3	1.1 What do Christians believe God is like? UC 1.1 Visit from local Reverend	1.5 Why does Easter matter to Christians? Easter	1.10 How should we care for the world and for others, and why does it matter? Link with Eco Committee Thematic unit	1.4 What is the Good News Christians believe Jesus brings?

Year 2	Celebrating religions in our Local Area	1.2 Who do Christians believe made the world? Remembrance & Christmas	1.7 Who is Jewish and how do they live?	1.9 What makes some places sacred to believers? Visit all three local Churches Easter	1.8 Who am I? What does it mean to belong to a faith community?
Year 3 Link to Diocese Syllabus	2.1 What do Christians learn from the Creation Story?	2.3 What is the Trinity and why is it important for Christians?	2.9 What are the deeper meanings of festivals? (6-10 hours) Thematic unit	2.5 Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'(6-8 hours)? Link to acts of kindness, charitable work/RE Ambassadors	2.4 What kind of world did Jesus want? (6-8 hours) Link with a school based eco project, caring for our world 2.7 What does it mean to be a Hindu in Britain today? https://hindutemple.co.uk/ Invite a visitor, virtual tour, teacher tour, video. W 2.7
					Federation day - World Theme - talking about how everyone in the world has a duty to look after it. Link to other religions and projects that they do, invite local representatives to talk to the children about responsibility and justice. (link to all faiths - 'giving')
KS2 - Year 4 Link to Diocese Syllabus	2.2 What is it like to follow God? Harvest	2.11 How and why do people try to make the world a better place? Remembrance & Christmas	2.8 What does it mean to be a Sikh in Britain today? Enrichment - Sikh visitor or visit out	2.6 For Christians, What was the impact of Pentecost? Easter	2.10 How and why do people mark significant events of life?

Whole School Spirited Art Project - Theme: Living in a Diverse World